ALLEN CIVIC BALLET COMPANY DANCER'S AGREEMENT

Membership in the Allen Civic Ballet is determined by audition only. Company dancers are required to attend ballet class three times a week for ages 12-13 and four times a week for ages 14 and up. Company class on Saturday mornings is mandatory and counts for one of those classes. No dancer under the age of 18 will be permitted to perform with another company (or other dance entity) without express permission from the Board of Directors of the Allen Civic Ballet.

Dancers are allowed to miss a maximum of two rehearsals for "Nutcracker." Dancers may be replaced by their understudy at their third missed rehearsal. When a guest choreographer is present, Dancers are allowed to miss only one rehearsal of that choreographer's piece (with that choreographer's permission.). Dancers are allowed to miss a maximum of two scheduled rehearsals for any of the Company's spring pieces. Do not be late or leave early. Missing part of a rehearsal more than once will count as an absence.

By auditioning, the Dancer agrees to accept all roles in which he/she is cast. Refusal to dance any role results in the Dancer's forfeiture of company status. Likewise, the Dancer must be available to dance at all performances on the Company's schedule. Dancers must submit a list of dates for which he/she is unavailable PRIOR to audition.

The Dancer agrees that the Company will have the right to use the name and image of the Dancer for advertising, promotional or other purposes.

The Dancer is responsible for personal items needed for rehearsal and performance, such as make-up, Dress Code tights, nude leotard, shoes and trunks. Dancers must provide their own snacks and water.

Each dancer is required to bring one 40 count of water in August and again in January.

I agree that I will not hold the Allen Civic Ballet, its agents or employees, liable for property damage, injuries sustained or illnesses contracted by me or my child while working with the Company.

I HAVE CAREFULLY READ THE ABOVE POLICIES AND LIABILITY RELEASE AND SIGN IT WITH FULL KNOWLEDGE OF ITS CONTENT AND SIGNIFICANCE.

Allen Civic Ballet – FAQ's

The Allen Civic Ballet is dedicated to presenting affordable and enjoyable dance performances for audiences of all ages, while providing valuable experience for young dancers considering a career in the profession.

What does the Allen Civic Ballet look for in a dancer?

We look at the arch of the feet, the range of rotation in the hips, the flexibility of the body. We look for sound technique, musicality, quality of movement and performance quality or artistic expression.

How many dancers will the Allen Civic Ballet accept?

As many as we can get who meet the above criteria!

Why are Allen Civic Ballet dancers required to put in so many hours in class and rehearsal?

The time commitment is comparable to any other extra-curricular school activity, such as band, football, drama, etc. And we do offer Off Campus PE credit. The Company requires as much time as is necessary to train and rehearse dancers to meet the standards of our productions.

My child is only 12 years old and can't possibly know if she wants to be a ballerina.

Unfortunately, one cannot decide at 16 to become a professional ballet dancer unless the groundwork was laid from a young age. It takes 8-12 years to train a ballet dancer. We strive to give our dancers the closest experience to being a professional ballet dancer as possible within the parameters of their childhood. Please understand that sacrifices will have to be made.

I already pay tuition, why do I have to pay/volunteer more to Allen Civic Ballet?

Tuition is paid to the Allen Conservatory of Dance for the dancers' regular technique classes. The Allen Civic Ballet is a non-profit organization which is essentially providing your dancer with hours of extra instruction during rehearsals, extra performance opportunities, and Master Classes with professionals who are outstanding in their field.

My child works twice as hard as other Company dancers but has fewer and smaller roles. Why?

Ballet is not fair. Children at this age have already realized that two people studying the same amount for the same math test will not necessarily get the same grade. Ballet requires hard work, but not ONLY hard work. Facility (flexibility, foot structure, etc.), and a certain quality of movement and performance quality also play a huge role. Repeat - Ballet is not fair.

Can you still dance in "Nutcracker" if you're not in Company?

Yes.

How do I keep informed about everything?

We will try to communicate important information to you via email and/or handouts. Unfortunately, it will not be possible for us to convey every single piece of information to you in this fashion. Dancers are required to write down relevant information and relay it to you. If you have any questions, please ask! We would be happy to speak with you.

About YAGP

The Allen Civic Ballet will invite a few dancers to participate in Youth America Grand Prix, the world's largest student scholarship competition. We feel the experience can be a valuable one, with a weekend full of performances and master classes.

The criteria emphasized at this event are extremely narrow. You may be invited to participate as a soloist, part of an ensemble, or both. We will not be issuing an invitation to everyone. That does not mean you are not good dancers, it means that you do not fit the criteria emphasized at this event.

We encourage you to visit www.yagp.org for information about these events.

Company Dancer Etiquette

IN CLASS AND REHEARSAL

Do not talk or create distractions while the teacher is talking, even if she is not talking directly to you. You will miss, or cause others to miss, potentially important information.

Do not talk or create distractions while others are dancing. It's rude and disrespectful. Watching others dance is a great way to learn.

In this country, ballet teachers are called "Miss," regardless of age or marital status. You will address Miss Mary as "Miss Mary" for the rest of your life, regardless of circumstances.

You should smile and thank teachers for their corrections. They are trying to help you and do not know if you understand or appreciate their corrections unless you acknowledge them properly.

If a teacher gives a correction to another dancer, you should listen and apply that correction as if she were addressing you personally; just because she does not call you by name, doesn't mean you could not benefit from that correction.

If you are late to class or rehearsal, it is necessary to apologize for your tardiness and ask permission to join class or rehearsal.

You should clap for your teacher/director at the end of class/rehearsal. It is considered polite to curtsy and thank your teacher before leaving the classroom.

If you have missed all or part of a rehearsal, it is your responsibility to find out what you missed and to learn it outside of studio time.

Dancers are expected to pick up and retain choreography quickly. Use time outside of class and rehearsal to review.

Listen to all announcements and take notes. It will be your responsibility to communicate information to your parents.

In rehearsal, when you are not dancing, you are understudying. When you are not dancing or understudying, you are doing schoolwork. When you are not dancing, understudying or doing schoolwork, you are curing cancer. Or helping Miss Stefanie plan her latest elaborate prank.

AT THE THEATER AND BEYOND

You may not appear outside of the stage, backstage or dressing room area in costume.

You may not eat in costume.

You may not ask your parents to photograph or record you during a performance. (OK during rehearsals).

Never walk behind a cyclorama or backdrop unless you have been given express permission to do so. Never touch a cyclorama, backdrop, curtain or wings. Doing so creates movement in the fabric which is extremely distracting to the audience.

While standing in the wings, be aware of your sightlines. If you can see the audience, the audience can see you. Be aware of other dancers' entrances and exits while in the wings. Never sit in the wings.

You must treat any and all representatives, dancers and volunteers of the Allen Civic Ballet and the premises it occupies with absolute respect.

Remember that at all times in public or on social media, you are representing the Allen Civic Ballet, whether it is your intention to do so or not.

Allen Civic Ballet and Allen Conservatory of Dance Policies

- 1) Before class/rehearsal begins all cell phones must be placed in the cell phone rack at the front of the classroom. You will be allowed to check your cell phone once between class and rehearsal. Otherwise Cell phones must remain there for the duration of class and rehearsal. There will be no exceptions. If your parents need to reach you, tell them that they should call you instead of text. You will be allowed to answer your phone if it rings.
- 2) Birthday and other celebrations, especially those involving food, are not allowed during class or rehearsal without permission from the director.
- 3) You may not leave the classroom during class without permission. If you do leave without permission, you will not be allowed to re-join class and will be required to sit out.
- 4) Under no circumstances are you allowed to leave the building without permission from the director.
- 5) All decisions regarding casting, costuming, rehearsal attendance, etc. are at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors. Many factors are considered in these decisions, including private circumstances of the dancers and their families.
